

The Kerry Way

8-DAY SELF-GUIDED HIKING TOUR

The Kerry Way

The Kerry Way is Ireland's longest and most scenic long-distance walking route, winding through 214 kilometers (133 miles) of breathtaking landscapes in County Kerry. This trail provides an extraordinary journey through remote valleys, rugged mountain passes, and serene coastal paths. It showcases some of Ireland's most spectacular scenery, from the majestic MacGillycuddy's Reeks to the tranquil shores of Kenmare Bay.

HIGHLIGHTS

Dramatic Mountain Passes: The route takes you over stunning highland terrain, including Windy Gap and Caher Pass, offering panoramic views of the Kerry landscape.

Killarney National Park: One of Ireland's most famous national parks, home to lush forests, waterfalls, and historic landmarks such as Muckross House and Ross Castle.

The Black Valley: One of the most remote and unspoiled areas in Ireland, known for its isolation and rugged beauty.

Coastal Beauty: Follow the dramatic coastline of Kenmare Bay and enjoy views of the Atlantic Ocean and the Iveragh Peninsula.

Ancient Heritage: Encounter historic sites along the way, including Bronze Age stone circles, old monasteries, and famine cottages.

Charming Villages: Experience authentic Irish hospitality in quaint villages like Glenbeigh, Sneem, and Caherdaniel, where you can enjoy local cuisine and traditional music.

The Kerry Way is an unforgettable adventure, blending Ireland's natural beauty with its rich history and culture. Whether you're a seasoned trekker or a casual walker, this trail offers an immersive experience through one of Ireland's most spectacular landscapes.

The Kerry Way 8-Day Self Guided Hike

DETAILED ITINERARY

Day 1: Killarney

Arrive in Killarney, a vibrant town at the gateway to the Kerry Way. Take the day to explore this lively town, renowned for its warm hospitality, excellent restaurants, and stunning scenery. Wander through the charming streets filled with traditional Irish pubs and boutique shops or visit the historic Killarney House and Gardens for a peaceful stroll.

For those looking to stretch their legs before the hike, a visit to Killarney National Park is a great option. Explore the picturesque grounds of Muckross House, take a short walk to Torc Waterfall, or hire a boat to explore the serene Lakes of Killarney. Ross Castle, a striking 15th-century fortress on the shores of Lough Leane, provides a fascinating glimpse into Ireland's medieval history.

In the evening, enjoy a hearty meal in one of Killarney's welcoming pubs and listen to traditional live music to get a taste of Ireland's vibrant culture. Rest well in preparation for the adventure ahead.

Day 2: Glenbeigh to Cahersiveen

Transferring to just outside Glenbeigh, you will embark on a truly scenic section of the Kerry Way, following the historic Old Kerry Road. This ancient route, once used by traders and travelers, winds through dense woodlands, where the rustling of leaves and birdsong create a peaceful ambiance. As the path opens into expansive moorlands, the rugged beauty of the Irish countryside unfolds before you. The highlight of this section is the ascent towards Drung Hill, where you'll be rewarded with panoramic views of Dingle Bay and the vast Atlantic beyond. The sight of the coastline stretching into the distance, combined with the ever-changing light over the water, makes this a truly breathtaking experience.

The trail then gradually descends, leading you through remote farmland and past gentle rivers, where the only sounds are the distant call of livestock and the murmur of flowing water. As you approach Cahersiveen, the landscape softens, and soon you'll find yourself in one of the most historic towns on the Ring of Kerry. Steeped in heritage, Cahersiveen is famously associated with Daniel O'Connell, a pivotal figure in Irish history, whose birthplace is nearby. A visit to the Cahergal Stone Fort, an impressively preserved early medieval ring fort, offers insight into Ireland's ancient past.

After a rewarding day's hike, take time to explore Cahersiveen's charming streets, browse its local markets, and savor fresh seafood from nearby Valentia Island. With its blend of history, culture, and stunning coastal scenery, this leg of the journey is both exhilarating and deeply enriching.

Day 3: Cahersiveen to Waterville

Today's hike on the Kerry Way is a breathtaking journey through coastal and mountain landscapes, offering some of the most stunning scenery of the trail. Leaving Cahersiveen, the path begins with a steady climb over Knockavally, rewarding hikers with panoramic views of Valentia Island and the Skellig Islands, their jagged silhouettes rising dramatically from the Atlantic Ocean. The sheer vastness of the seascape, combined with the rugged beauty of the mountains, creates a truly awe-inspiring start to the day.

As you descend from the highlands, the landscape softens, revealing rolling fields, remote boglands, and winding trails that guide you toward the Atlantic coast. The terrain here is wild yet peaceful, with open skies stretching endlessly above the untamed beauty of Kerry's countryside. Along the way, the air is rich with the scent of heather and peat, and the sense of solitude is both refreshing and humbling.

Reaching Waterville, you are welcomed by its picturesque seafront promenade, where the waves of Ballinskelligs Bay meet golden sands. This charming fishing village has long been a place of rest and inspiration, famously loved by Charlie Chaplin, who visited regularly with his family. A statue in his honor stands along the promenade, a tribute to his connection to this special place.

After a rewarding day on the trail, unwind by the sea, indulge in a meal at one of Waterville's excellent seafood restaurants, and watch as the sun sets over the Atlantic, casting golden hues across the bay. It's the perfect way to end a day of adventure along Ireland's **wild and beautiful southwest coast.

Day 4: Waterville to Caherdaniel

Leaving the seaside charm of Waterville behind, today's hike takes you along an elevated coastal trail, offering spectacular views over the Atlantic Ocean. The vast expanse of water stretches endlessly before you, with the wild beauty of Kerry's coastline unfolding in all directions. As you follow the rugged cliffs and rolling hills, the scenery is nothing short of breathtaking, making this section of the Kerry Way one of the most visually rewarding.

A major highlight of today's route is Derrynane Beach, a pristine stretch of golden sand that seems to emerge like a hidden paradise along the Wild Atlantic Way. This stunning beach serves as the gateway to Derrynane House, the historic home of Daniel O'Connell, one of Ireland's most influential political leaders. Stepping into this well-preserved estate, surrounded by lush gardens and coastal views, offers a fascinating glimpse into Irish history and the life of the man known as "The Liberator."

After exploring Derrynane, the trail continues through quiet country roads, where the landscape softens into green pastures, old stone walls, and winding laneways. This peaceful walk brings you to the charming village of Caherdaniel, a place steeped in history and renowned for its warm hospitality. As the day draws to a close, enjoy an evening in one of the friendly local pubs, where traditional Irish music and lively conversation create the perfect atmosphere to relax and celebrate another day on the trail.

Day 5: Caherdaniel to Sneem

Today's leg of the Kerry Way leads you away from the dramatic coastal cliffs, ushering you into the serene and verdant landscape of inland Kerry. Departing from Caherdaniel, the trail follows ancient pathways once trodden by farmers and traders for centuries. As you traverse these historic routes, the lush beauty of Ireland's rural heritage unfolds before you through magnificent forests and expansive open pastures. The quiet rustling of leaves and the gentle hum of nature create a peaceful ambiance that is both rejuvenating and steeped in history.

The changing scenery provides a welcome contrast to previous coastal sections. Here, the landscape is characterized by rolling fields dotted with wildflowers, ancient hedgerows, and meandering country lanes that evoke the timeless charm of the Irish countryside. Every step along this trail is an invitation to immerse yourself in a world where nature and history intertwine.

At the end of today's journey, you arrive in Sneem, a picturesque village famed for its colorful houses and warm, welcoming atmosphere. Sneem exudes charm with its quaint streets lined with traditional Irish cottages and friendly local establishments. Take some time to explore the village, wandering along its narrow lanes and discovering small artisan shops and hidden gems around every corner.

Conclude your day by settling into one of Sneem's cozy pubs, where you can savor a hearty, traditional meal and enjoy the convivial spirit that defines this unique corner of Kerry. The blend of authentic Irish culture, breathtaking rural scenery, and rich heritage makes this final stage a memorable and heartwarming experience on your Kerry Way adventure.

Day 6: Sneem to Kenmare

Leaving the charming village of Sneem, today's hike follows the banks of the Blackwater River, where the gentle murmur of flowing water and the surrounding woodlands create a peaceful start to the day. As you continue along the Kerry Way, the landscape gradually transforms, leading you into more rugged and mountainous terrain. The climb offers spectacular views over Kenmare Bay, where the shimmering waters meet the rolling hills of the Beara Peninsula in the distance. This section of the trail is known for its wild beauty, with sweeping panoramas that showcase the untamed majesty of Ireland's southwest.

Along the way, the path winds through remote valleys and open moorlands, where the silence is broken only by the occasional call of a buzzard overhead or the distant bleating of sheep grazing on the hillsides. The untouched nature of this landscape makes it a truly immersive experience, offering hikers a sense of solitude and connection with the land.

As the descent into Kenmare begins, the scenery softens, with fields and stone-walled farmlands welcoming you into one of Kerry's most vibrant and welcoming towns. Kenmare is well known for its outstanding hospitality, with a bustling atmosphere that blends traditional Irish charm with modern comforts. Its renowned restaurants offer some of the best cuisine in the region, serving a mix of traditional Irish fare and contemporary dishes crafted from fresh, local ingredients.

After a long day on the trail, relax in one of Kenmare's lively pubs, where you can reflect on your journey, enjoy some traditional Irish music, and savour the warm hospitality that makes this town a fitting and memorable place to end this stage of the Kerry Way.

Day 7: Kenmare to Killarney

The final leg of the Kerry Way is a fittingly breathtaking journey, leading you back into the stunning landscapes of Killarney National Park. Departing from Kenmare, the trail follows an ancient path, winding through dense woodlands, peaceful glens, and along the serene shores of Killarney's famous lakes. The air is filled with the earthy scent of moss-covered trees and the distant sounds of birdsong, creating a tranquil and reflective atmosphere for the last day of your hike.

As you progress, the trail brings you past some of the park's most iconic landmarks, including the magnificent Torc Waterfall. This cascading waterfall, surrounded by ancient oaks and ferns, is one of the most photographed spots in the park and a perfect place to pause and appreciate the beauty of your surroundings. The cool mist rising from the falls adds a refreshing touch as you continue towards your final destination. Emerging from the forest, the final stretch of the Kerry Way leads you back into Killarney, where your incredible journey comes full circle. The transition from the peaceful solitude of the trail to the bustling town of Killarney is a moment of reflection and celebration. Here, you can reward yourself with a well-earned meal in one of the town's renowned restaurants, raise a toast in a traditional Irish pub, and reminisce on the breathtaking landscapes, historic sites, and unforgettable moments that have defined your trek. Completing the Kerry Way is an achievement worth celebrating, and Killarney's warm hospitality provides the perfect setting to mark the end of this remarkable adventure through Ireland's most stunning landscapes.

“ I wholeheartedly recommend this company and would go with them again without hesitation. Our guide could not have been more perfect for our group, the routes we took were stunningly beautiful and the Irish people could not have been more warm and welcoming. The accommodations were very comfortable... Can't wait to go back to Ireland! ” —NICOLE L.

Accommodation

We use a selection of comfortable and welcoming bed and breakfast (B&B) accommodations that offer a homely, intimate atmosphere for our guests. These B&Bs are often family-run, providing a personal touch and excellent local hospitality. The accommodations are carefully chosen for their locations, offering easy access to walking and hiking routes, with many situated in picturesque villages or near stunning natural landscapes.

The style of B&Bs varies, but all offer cosy rooms with traditional Irish décor, comfortable furnishings, and modern amenities like en-suite bathrooms, Wi-Fi, and tea/coffee-making facilities. Some properties may have more luxurious options, while others maintain a charming, rustic charm that reflects the local culture. You can expect hearty breakfasts, typically with local produce such as Irish soda bread, smoked salmon, and eggs, served to fuel you for a day of outdoor activities.

Culinary Delights

Ireland's culinary offerings are a well-kept secret, providing hearty and abundant fare—a perfect reward after a satisfying hike through the hills. Breakfast is served daily at your accommodation. Vegetarian and gluten-free options are available with advance notice. If you have specific medical dietary needs, please inform us in advance to arrange suitable meals. Recommendations for dinner spots are provided for your leisure on your free evenings.

Upgrade Options

For those seeking a more luxurious stay during your holidays we can offer upgraded accommodations in some locations. These provide additional amenities and a higher level of service, ensuring guests enjoy a more indulgent experience while still being immersed in the beauty of Ireland's landscapes.

Boutique Hotels: These are carefully selected hotels offering a blend of contemporary luxury and traditional Irish charm. They typically feature stylish, well-appointed rooms, fine dining options, spas, and additional amenities such as lounges and on-site bars. Many boutique hotels are located in scenic settings or within walking distance of popular hiking routes.

4 or 5-Star Hotels: These hotels offer a higher level of comfort and service, with spacious, well-designed rooms, gourmet restaurants, fitness centers, and sometimes pools or wellness facilities. The emphasis is on premium quality and attentive service, creating a relaxing environment after a day of hiking.

Country Houses and Manor Hotels: Set in tranquil rural locations, these stately homes and country houses offer a more peaceful, refined experience. They often come with lush gardens, elegant dining rooms, and a welcoming atmosphere. Staying in a country house can feel like being a guest in a grand private estate, with the charm of old-world Ireland.

Highend Guesthouses: These upgraded guesthouses offer a more intimate setting than hotels but still provide higher levels of comfort and service. Rooms may be more spacious with added amenities such as premium bed linens, complimentary refreshments, and en-suite bathrooms with higher-quality toiletries.

These upgraded accommodation options are ideal for those who want to combine outdoor adventures with a touch of luxury, offering guests a perfect balance of relaxation, comfort, and access to the natural beauty of Ireland.

“ Everything was perfect! Great personalized service; knowledgeable, very nice and very experienced guides. Great choice of walks, accommodations, restaurants, side visits and excellent recommendations. They treat their walkers as special guests. I have used many walking companies in Europe and I know I am a tough, demanding customer. They are in the top 1%, they excel in every area. ” —ROSA G.

Exploring Killarney

Pre-Tour Recommendations

If you plan to arrive in Killarney a few days early, below are recommendations for what to see and do.

Killarney is one of Ireland's most popular tourist destinations, renowned for its vibrant atmosphere, stunning landscapes, and deep cultural heritage. Situated at the heart of County Kerry, this charming town serves as the ideal starting point for your Kerry Way adventure. Surrounded by the majestic MacGillycuddy's Reeks, picturesque lakes, and the lush expanse of Killarney National Park, Killarney offers visitors a perfect blend of history, nature, and lively Irish hospitality.

Things to See and Do in Killarney

- Killarney National Park: A must-visit before embarking on the Kerry Way, this national park boasts scenic walking trails, dense woodlands, and breathtaking lake views. Highlights include Muckross House and Gardens, Torc Waterfall, and the ancient yew trees of Muckross Abbey.
- Ross Castle: This 15th-century stronghold on the shores of Lough Leane is steeped in history and offers guided tours that bring its past to life.
- Jaunting Car Rides: Take a traditional horse-drawn carriage ride through the park, a charming way to experience Killarney's landscapes.
- Boat Tours on the Lakes of Killarney: Explore the serene waters of Lough Leane with a scenic boat tour that offers incredible views of the surrounding mountains.
- Traditional Pubs and Live Music: Killarney's lively nightlife scene includes traditional Irish pubs such as O'Connor's and The Laurels, where you can enjoy authentic Irish music and hearty local cuisine.
- Shopping and Crafts: Browse local artisan shops for handcrafted woolens, pottery, and souvenirs unique to the region.

With its mix of outdoor adventure, cultural sites, and warm hospitality, Killarney is the perfect place to prepare for the journey ahead on the Kerry Way. Whether you explore its rich history, enjoy a peaceful boat ride, or soak in the lively pub culture, Killarney provides an unforgettable start to your Irish hiking experience.

For golf enthusiasts, perfect your game at Killarney Golf and Fishing Club, 3 time host of the Irish Open, with 2 courses available and amazing views of the Lakes of Killarney and MacGillycuddy Reeks.

Getting to Killarney

There are four primary international airports in Ireland: Dublin, Shannon, Cork and Belfast (Aldergrove) International. In addition, there are several smaller airports which provide access to Ireland from mainland Europe and the UK: Kerry, Knock, Donegal and Belfast City (George Best).

Most of our guests on this tour arrive at Dublin Airport and transfer to Killarney by bus or train. You can also fly into Kerry Airport, which is the closest airport to Killarney. We recommend arriving at least one day prior to the start of your tour.

Dublin Airport (www.dublinairport.com) is located 10 km from Dublin City and is accessible by over 1,000 buses daily. From the airport, you can reach many areas in proximity to Dublin, as well as various towns and cities across Ireland. These buses pick up passengers outside arrivals. Taxis and car hire are also available.

Shannon Airport (www.shannonairport.ie) is located about 125 km north of Killarney and receives a good number of trans-Atlantic flights in the summer months. It is served by bus, car hire and taxi. By bus, the transfer takes about 3.5 hours.

Kerry Airport (www.kerryairport.ie) is located between Killarney and Tralee in the village of Farranfore, 13 km from Killarney and 15 km from Tralee. Two daily flights arrive here from Dublin. It is served by bus, car hire, taxi and the train station is a 10-minute walk away.

We advise confirming your tour reservation with Ireland Walk Hike Bike before making flight arrangements.
